Seventh-Day Adventist Church

Pastor William E. Carpenter

In his soul stirring message last Sabbath morning, September 15, said just what many are saying today about the times in which we live, and our future destiny according to Scripture, "We are facing the greatest crisis the world has ever known, and our only safety is in drawing closer to our Saviour. We must have the seal of God in our characters."

Subject — "The Coming Crisis."

Key text — Rev. 7: 1,2,3. Pastor Carpenter continued — Christians are called out from the world to give a certain message at this time Rev. 12: 12-16 Rev. 16: 13-16. He added — "We have not a moment to lose, all the prophecies are being fulfilled. There will be only two classes. The obedient, and disobedient, at that day. Matt 25: 31-46

PRE-REVIVAL SUNDAY will be observed at both services Sunday. The Fall Revival will begin Sept. 30 and continue for the following week, with Rev. George W. Poris, Sr., as the guest Evangelist.

For the morning worship service, at 11 o'clock, the minister's sermon subject will be "HOT, COLD, OR LUKEWARM", based on the message to the seven churches in the Book of Revelation. The Chapel Choir will present special selections.

WORLD SERVICE SUNDAY will be observed in the Church School with the total offering received in all classes being directed to National and World Missions. Sunday School attendance has been very fine during the last several Sundays, and each class is urged to enlist in actie and new members anticipating the beginning of the New Church School year with the first Sunday in Octobyr. Promotion Day will be observed on the last Sunday in September with an appropriate service.

THE MEN'S CHORUS will present two special selections at the evening worship servic, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The minister's message in preparation for the Fall Revival Services will be on the subject — "THE THREE CROSSES" based upon the stirring scene and events of Calvary. The service will close with a Prayer-Time around the altar and all members and visitors are especially inited to join in special prayers for the Revival.

Beginning, Wednesday, Sept. 26, at 3:15 p.m. at the church, at 3:15 p. m. at the church will meet for their first rehearsal of the Fall Season. All children of the Church are urged to be present and visitors are always welcome. The choirs will participate in the various services of the program of the church during the Fall and Winter Seasons.

A MOST URGENT APPEAL FOR HOME PRAYER GROUPS is made by the Commission on Membership and Evangelism by the chairman, Mrs. Grover E. Smith. Let us be much in prayer both as individuals and as groups for the forthcoming Revival services beginning on Sunday, Sept. 30 and continuing through the following Sunday, Oct. 7, with the guest Evangelist preaching on both Sundays and during the week each evening at 7:30 p.m. Revival chorus rehearsal each Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m.
